Sandwich Trays & Box Lunches

For business lunches, outings or family get-togethers, we offer a selection of Sandwich Trays and Box Lunches for take-out or delivery. The trays come with fruit, chips and dessert. Each box lunch includes fruit, pickle & chips, dessert and a beverage. We need 24 hour notice in advance for larger orders (more than 10 people). Our entire menu is available for take-out. Delivery for Box Lunches and Sandwich Trays is available to locations within a 10 mile radius of the Café. If you want us to cater an upcoming event, stop in or call (ask for Barry or Kayla.) We use healthy, whole food ingredients in everything we make. We are flexible and creative and will work to meet your specific needs.

The Café Cash Card

The first Café Cash Card was introduced in 1997. The appearance of the card has changed since then, but our card still works like the gift cards available in most stores today. Café Cash Cards may be purchased in any amount at the restaurant or online and are reloadable - add to the card balance at any time! Cards may be used to purchase any menu item at Vanilla Bean Café. A bonus of 10% is added to the card balance when you purchase a card for $100 or more. The card must be presented to redeem it at the time of purchase.

The Café Cash Card makes a great gift for friends and family members and is ideal for students at the local schools. Café Cash Cards have no expiration date.

Cocoa Bean for Kids

Beginning in January we will be running our acoustic music series just for young people. A major change this coming year is that we will have a show EVERY SUNDAY in January, February & the first week of March. Each week we will feature a musician who performs a children's show encouraging participation & movement with a sense of fun. The shows are always on Sunday at 4:00 PM. See the calendar listings in the next issue of Bean Soup for specific dates and performers. We serve complimentary hot chocolate and/or chocolate milk to every guest. So plan to get the kids and yourself out of the house and come to the new Cocoa Bean for Kids! in 2011.

October Entertainment

Friday - 1 - Open Mic

Hosts - Faith Montaperto & Eric Paradine - Feature - Eric Balkey delivers an engaging mix of honesty, intimacy and humor. His "sparse arrangements frame the songs with uncommon poise." - Dirty Linen.

Saturday - 2 - Terence Martin

Singer/songwriter and poet, Terence Martin was born in London, grew up in LA, and moved East in '97 to become part of the flourishing NY acoustic music scene. His musical background includes performing as a double bassist in the Burbank Symphony and in several touring rock bands. His poetry is included in the anthology, "Four Valley Poets." Terence has shared the stage with an impressive line-up of national acts. Terence Martin's latest CD, "The Last Black and White TV" might be his finest recording to date. Terence puts us in the passenger seat for a musical roadtrip to some very personal mileposts, each song crafted with an honesty and accessibility that is a hallmark of his songwriting skills." - Ron Olesko, Traditions WFDU. "An extraordinarily skillful writer whose powerful songs are impossible to forget." - Charlie Backfish, WUSB radio.

Friday - 8 - Gideon Freudmann

Gideon Freudmann, a cello innovator, has created his own style of music called CelloBop, a fusion of blues, jazz, folk and much more. A classical musician by training, Freudmann earned a BFA in Cello Performance at UCONN. Since that time, he has distinguished himself as one of the finest solo cross-genre cellists, performing in literally hundreds of venues. His creative workshops at schools, colleges and music camps, as well as his tunebook, New Music For Cello has inspired cello and violin students and teachers. Gideon's original composed music has been commissioned for film, theatre and dance. Gideon has 12 original CDs and has performed on dozens of albums by other musicians throughout the US, including a performance at New Directions Cello Festival in NY.

Saturday - 9 - Septeto Tipico Tivoli

Septeto Tipico Tivoli began in 1995 in the Cuban district of Tivoli. The Septet Tivoli is a faithful defender of traditional Cuban music. They have created their own style and identity, placing them among the best of the musical groups in Caribbean Cuban cities. Their commitment to excellence is evident in the outstanding caliber of their singers, the virtuosity of the instrumentalists, their impressive stage presentation with authentic "son" steps, and their extensive repertoire.

October Entertainment

Saturday - 16 - Brooks Williams

Bluesy guitarist Brooks Williams is a certified road warrior, wowing audiences for twenty-one years in both North America, Ireland, the UK and Turkey with his powerful acoustic and resonator slide guitars. Brooks Williams is as diverse and versatile a musician as you are likely to encounter. Dirty Linen magazine calls Williams one of "America's musical treasures." He regularly brings audiences to their feet and is quite simply one of the most entertaining and engaging performers on the circuit today. As one of the world's premier acoustic guitarists and singers, Brooks Williams continues to tour worldwide, every night delivering the deepest and most intense interpretations of everything from early blues songs to his recent original compositions. He is quite simply one of the most entertaining and engaging performers on the circuit today. From coast to coast, country to country, Williams and his guitars roll and tumble like nobody's business.

Saturday - 23 - Lui Collins

Lui Collins was born in VT and played her first gigs in the early '70's while studying at UCONN. Collins established herself in the folk community by the early '80's with the release of her early Philo and Green Linnet recordings. She now has eight solo recordings and a poetry book, Moon of Ripe Berries. Collins has been featured on several other musicians' recording projects, singing both lead and harmony vocals and playing guitar, and she has had her songs recorded by Garnet Rogers, Priscilla Herdman, and others. Her most recent recording, Closer, was released by Waterbug Records in 2006. Collins is highly regarded by both the press and her fellow musicians. The Boston Globe dubs Collins "one of New England's first and brightest stars."

Saturday - 30 - Grass Routes

Grass Routes has been performing on the New England bluegrass scene for 27 years, and has appeared on radio and television and has pleased audiences at concerts, coffeehouses, festivals and many other venues in the Northeast. The band features the traditional bluegrass instruments of banjo, mandolin, fiddle, guitar and upright bass. Grass Routes performs a broad repertoire of songs ranging from straight-ahead traditional bluegrass to more contemporary folk and country material. Skillful instrumental work and strong vocals gives them their own distinctive sound.

November Entertainment

Friday - 5 - Open Mic

Hosts - Faith Montaperto & Eric Paradine. Feature - Pamela Means is an internationally-touring jazz musician, a fierce guitar player and politically-rooted song writer.

Saturday - 6 - lloyd Thayer

Blues for Boston is lloyd Thayer's much anticipated third album, released in response to constant requests by his fans for an "all blues" cd. And so these 13 songs are just that, all blues, played in Thayer's incredibly unique style, which combines elements of old time Delta masters with modern ideas and stories of today. Endless hours of playing on street corners and subway platforms have honed his songs and skills the old fashioned way, one song, one note, one heartbeat at a time. With the release of Blues of Boston, lloyd Thayer is sure to emerge from the underground, one song, one note, one heartbeat, one friend, at a time.....

Wednesday - 10 - Peter Mulvey

In every aspect of his career, Peter Mulvey draws on a broad swath of influences. He is reading, listening and eager to hear new poetry, modern minimalist composers, old-time fiddle tunes, Argentinean trip-hop, or top-shelf bar bands. Said The Irish Times: "Peter Mulvey is consistently the most original and dynamic of the US singer-songwriters to tour these shores. A phenomenal performer with huge energy, a quick fire, quirky take on life, and an extraordinary guitar style. A joy to see." Whether performing solo, duo (with David Goodrich), or even with a band, Mulvey attempts to be the sum of his parts, to draw on all the musical legacies he has studied, to make a fresh, vital moment out of everything he and the audience have brought to the table that night.

Friday - 12 - Songwriter Sessions

Songwriter Sessions is a monthly music series dedicated to the craft of songwriting. Performances take place on the second Friday of each month from 7-9 pm at The Vanilla Bean Café. The series, hosted by Lisa Martin, features monthly performances by three local or regional songwriters. Here in Pomfret, customers enjoy a great restaurant and bistro that also features live shows including performances by national and regional touring artists. The series serves to demonstrate the diversity in songwriting process. Each month, participating songwriters are required to write a song based on a theme chosen by the previous month's audience. Participants premiere the newly crafted songs during round three on performance night. See the back page of this newsletter for the calendar of performing artists in this series. 7:30 pm show time.

Saturday - 13 - Gail Wade

Gail Wade is a strong guitarist with a rich and soulful voice. She brings forth fresh renditions of folk, blues, Bluegrass and swing favorites. Though steeped in the roots of American music, her diverse array of influences enable Gail to handle the transition from one musical genre to the next, with a fluidity that will foster a true appreciation of her talent. Her beautifully crafted original songs such as "Anna's Owl" and "Harder Every Day" are certain to touch your heart. Gail tours with her band, Turning Point, which includes some well-known acoustic musicians from CT. Turning Point has been raising a bit of a stir throughout New England for quite some time now. Comprised of some of CT's finest acoustic musicians, the band brings an eclectic sound to Gail's music.

Saturday - 20 - Roy Book Binder

Roy Book Binder, is a Blues Singing, guitar picking, song writing raconteur, and has been for the past 40 years! Roy has been interviewed by Terry Gross on NPR's Fresh Air, featured on the Emmy award winning segment of the PBS TV series EGG Art in America, and appeared more than 30 times on Ralph Emory's highly regarded TV series Nashville Now. Book Binder has been included in The Big Book of Blues, as well as The Blue's Who's Who!! Roy has been touring America in his bus, his home for the last 30 years, as well as performing internationally. Roy has toured with Bonnie Raitt, Hot Tuna, and J.J. Cale. He has been invited to many festivals including: The National StoryTelling Festival, the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival, the Chicago Blues Festival, and MerleFest where he has hosted the acoustic blues stage for the past fourteen years.

Saturday - 27 - Antje Duvekot

Antje Duvekot has solidified her reputation as a top singer songwriter with "Big Dream Boulevard" her debut studio release. The CD was produced by Seamus Egan, of the Irish super group, SOLAS and released on acclaimed songwriter Ellis Paul's label, Black Wolf Records. It was voted "#1 Folk Release of 2006" by the Boston Globe and named to the "Top10 Releases of the Year." by NPR's Folk Alley. "I have had this reaction once in the last 10 years and that was the first time I heard Patty Griffin." - Rolling Stone. In 2007 Antje's fast growing fan base, the viral spreading of her music and a track record of sold-out shows are a testament to her growing popularity. Neil Dorfsman, the producer of Bob Dylan, Bruce Springsteen and Sting says, "She creates an entire, detailed world in verse, and takes you there with beautiful and understated melody. Her songs are stunning paintings of color and shade and always generate the heat and light that real art should. In an unpoetic and 'in your face' world, she is lyrical and subtle."

Saturday - 4 - Christmas Show Anders Vercelli & Friends

Anders Vercelli is a jazz pianist with a stunning repertoire of standards and tunes from the Great American Songbook. Anders performances present the elegance of live jazz piano. It's not esoteric or academic jazz, but wonderful jazz standards written by the masters of American Popular Song. Anders grew up on Block Island during the summer and had a steady gig playing piano at the movie theater in town when he was 16, performing nightly at the grand piano onstage prior to the start of the movies. One night, a couple saw him perform and asked Anders to play piano at their wedding reception at the Spring House on Block Island. Anders went on to study at the prestigious Berklee College of Music under the tutelage of Bob Winter, the principal pianist for the Boston Pops since 1980. Anders graduated from Berklee in 2005 with a degree in and now performs at more than a hundred special events each year. Join us the for this special evening and enjoy a Christmas show with music by Anders Vercelli and his friends.

Saturday - 11 - Maria Sangiolo & Jim Henry

 Maria Sangiolo has been enchanting folk audiences with her warm stage presence and mellifluous vocals for the past twenty years. Maria's deeply emotive soprano vocals have inspired comparisons to Joan Baez, Shawn Colvin and Carolyn Hester. The St. Paul Pioneer Press noted that "Sangiolo's voice is clear as crystal." The Boston Globe praised her "pure, honest soprano that makes you believe everything she sings." Fueled by her heart warming vocals, rich narrative song writing and deft guitar playing, Maria's albums are intimate and engaging.

There are only a few musicians who make you wonder if it's really as easy as it looks. Who make you crane your neck to see how many people are up on stage because you can't believe all the sounds and textures emanating from one place. Who you feel compelled to seek out and thank after the show, because you were absolutely transported by their contributions. This is how people feel after hearing Jim Henry play. Jim Henry's longtime reputation as a phenomenal all-around musician is well-deserved. He can do it all: play most things stringed, sing lead or harmony, write great songs, produce, engineer and arrange. Four solo recordings and literally hundreds of tracks on other people's recordings have cemented his position as one of the most versatile and talented musicians working in acoustic music today.

Saturday - 18 - Atwater-Donnelly

 Aubrey Atwater and Elwood Donnelly, the highly acclaimed husband-wife duo, present delightful programs of traditional American and Celtic folk songs, a capella pieces, old-time gospel songs, dance tunes, and original works. Elwood and Aubrey blend gorgeous and unusual harmonies and play guitar, Appalachian mountain dulcimer, mandolin, tin whistle, harmonica, banjo, bones, spoons, limberjacks, and other surprises including Appalachian clog dancing, French Canadian footwork, and Tap. "Atwater-Donnelly are marvelous musicians. Their voices blend beautifully, their instrumental work is sparkling, and they are captivating performers. I could listen to them for hours." - Frank Dudgeon, WUMB, Boston, MA.

"No man or woman is an island. To exist just for yourself is meaningless. You can achieve the most satisfaction when you feel related to some greater purpose in life, something greater than yourself." - Denis Waitley

Weekend Breakfast

A full breakfast menu is served Saturday and Sunday from 8:00 am - 12:00 noon. We offer a variety of specials including Brie Benedict, Ham and Jalapeño Burrito, and Pumpkin Cranberry Pancakes. We use only 100% maple syrup and top-quality bacon. ☺

Dinner at The Bean

We are open for dinner Wednesday - Sunday nights. Each night we run four or five dinner specials. Recent items include: Sweet & Sour Beef Skewers, Shepherd's Pie, Baked Eggplant, and Maple Glazed Scallops. We offer a truly quality dinner at a great price, in a warm and friendly atmosphere. If you haven't tried us for dinner yet, it's time you did. ☺

The Artwork Gallery

The Café displays artwork by local artists year round. Some shows have openings and some do not. Most of the artwork displayed is for sale and often prices are listed with the piece or on a list located in the room. One hundred percent of the sale price goes to the artist.

October - Pomfret School - J.P. Jacquet
November - Elinor Ives
December - Quilts ☺

Entertainment

The Café is on the National Folk Music Circuit and attracts talent from all over the United States while featuring mainly New England performers. The majority of the shows are on Saturday night and start at 8:00 PM. Our Open Mic night is on the first Friday of each month. During shows, a theatre curtain separates the listening room from the tiled dining room and kitchen in an effort to keep the music in and the kitchen noise out. ☺

On-Site WiFi

We provide complimentary wireless internet service. Bring your lap top to the Café, search for available networks and log on to the VBC. Get some work done or check your email while you eat lunch! ☺

Our Pricing Practices

1. Sales Tax Included - Our prices include the 6% Connecticut Sales Tax. The prices listed on the menu are exactly what you pay. Our prices may seem to be inflated; however, a $8.50 menu item is actually $8.02 + $.48 sales tax. Furthermore, this practice makes it easier for the customer, especially if that customer is a child who has exact change for a cookie. What you see is exactly what you pay - what could be simpler?

2. Not Market Standard Pricing - We are not trying to fool the customer into thinking that $7.95 is less expensive than $8.00. We find this type of pricing insulting to our customers. However, the reason it is used so extensively around the nation is that it works effectively. We don't like that practice, and we also like to believe that our clientele is not so easily fooled.

3. No Pennies, Dimes or Nickels - Because our prices include tax and we do not price in the standard way, we do not have to use pennies, dimes or nickels. This is a service to both the customer and to us. We don't give you lots of change, and we only have to use quarters and fifty-cent pieces. This also helps our staff to be more efficient performing transactions, which saves time and money. An added bonus is that we don't have to count change at the end of the business day.

"If you are aligned with the moment, the kind of action that you take is qualitatively totally different from the kind of action that you take when you deny or dislike the present moment out of the feeling that you want to get somewhere better than this moment." - Eckhart Tolle

The first Café Cash Card was introduced in 1997. The appearance of the card has changed since then, but our card still works like the gift cards available in most stores today. Café Cash Cards may be purchased in any amount at the restaurant or online and are reloadable - add to the card balance at any time! Cards may be used to purchase any menu item at Vanilla Bean Café. A bonus of 10% is added to the card balance when you purchase a card for $100 or more. The card must be presented to redeem it at the time of purchase. The Café Cash Card makes a great gift for friends and family members and is ideal for students at the local schools. Café Cash Cards have no expiration date.
